

Electrical Arc Flash Recertification

Course Duration: 1 Day

Who should attend?

This training program is designed for “Qualified” Electrical persons responsible for electrical systems and electrical safety programs, who have previously completed the 2-Day Arc Flash Safety Training. This training is required every 3 years to maintain a level of awareness in electrical safety work practices and requirements under CSA Z462 standard Workplace Electrical Safety.

Curriculum Topics include:

- Introduction to Arc Flash
- OH&S Regulations, Standards and Best Practices
- Understanding Electricity in the Workplace
- Electrical Hazards: Understanding the Danger
- Electrical Hazard Analysis
- Establishing an Electrical Safe Work Condition
- Engineering and Administrative Controls
- Electrical Specific Personal Protective Equipment
- Electrical Tools & Equipment
- Emergency Response, Incident Reporting and Program Maintenance

Note: Participants are required to show proof of current Electrical Arc Flash training certificate in order to register for this course