

Infection Control

Course Duration: 1 day

Who Should Attend?

This training program is designed for health care maintenance and acute care workers, contactors and any personnel such as Engineers, Architects working in areas under construction, renovation and maintenance in a Health Care facility. Participants will receive training in identifying harmful materials and preventative measures to reduce patient exposure. This course meets the requirements under CSA Z317.13 Infection Control during construction, renovation, and maintenance of health care facilities.

REL's instructor for this training is Mr. B. Rogers a Certified Industrial Hygienist with over 20 years experience in Infection Control

Curriculum Topics include:

- Information Resources / Infections in the Health Care Sector
- Background on CSA Standard CZ317.13
- Content of CSA Standard CZ317.13
- Comparison to CCDR Document
- Construction Techniques for Infection Control including Specific requirements, material selection, and remedial measures
- Effective implementation and practical applications of Infection Control
- "Lessons Learned" and summary of inspections issues identified while providing oversight on previous projects

